TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

George Square is one of the principal squares of the "Second City of the Empire," and was opened to the public by the King, then Prince of Wales, in 1876. On the eastern side of the square are Glasgow's Municipal Buildings, while the centre is laid out with flower-beds, provided with seats, and adorned with statues, including the Scott monument (by H. Ritchie).
